

RULES FOR COMMUNITY SERVICE WORK

All persons participating in community service work by order of a Chambers County Justice Court are expected to comply with the following rules and regulations:

- Report to your work assignment on time.
- When you arrive at your work assignment, report to your assigned supervisor.
- When it is time for you to leave your work assignment, report to your assigned supervisor.
- Complete all work assigned.
- Dress appropriately for your work assignment. For an office or other public workplace, shorts, short skirts, tank tops and t-shirts are not appropriate. For labor or outside work crew, long pants and t-shirts are acceptable. T-shirts must not contain any offensive gestures, pictures or words.
- No pagers, cell phones or other electronic devices are to be audible and are not permitted to be used during work assignments.
- No telephone calls are to be made or received during work assignments, except in case of emergency. If you need to use the telephone, please ask permission.
- No vulgar, foul, or abusive language is permitted during work assignments or on the premises of a community service project.
- No disruptive or disrespectful behavior will be tolerated.
- No smoking, no possession or use of alcohol, drugs or volatile chemicals is allowed during work assignments.
- Friends are not allowed to accompany you to work
- If you do not understand any part of your work assignment, ask for explanations or assistance. Always ask for permission or instruction before using machinery or equipment.
- Document the time you worked with your supervisor for reporting to the Court.

ANY COMMUNITY SERVICE PARTICIPANT FOUND IN VIOLATION OF THESE RULES WILL BE REFERRED TO THE COURT FOR FURTHER ACTION.
