

Felony Prosecutor

Employer: Chambers County District Attorney

Location: Anahuac, Texas

Position: Assistant District Attorney

The Chambers County District Attorney has an opening for an experienced Felony Prosecutor which will be available immediately.

Duties include carrying a full caseload, handling all aspects of felony prosecution from initial screening through trial. Prospective applicants should be able to handle an active criminal docket with minimal supervision. Special consideration will be given to applicants interested in prosecuting family violence and sexual assault cases.

Minimum Qualifications: Graduate of an accredited law school, currently licensed to practice law and in good standing with the State Bar of Texas. Experience in criminal law with first chair felony trial experience. Felony trial experience should include trials covering a broad range of felony offenses. Applicant must be a team player who can work well in a small office and must be able to work well with law enforcement. Must be familiar with the criminal justice system and have the ability to work within all components. Must have a demonstrated history of community involvement.

Chambers County is one of the fastest growing areas in the State of Texas. Located approximately 45 minutes east of Houston. Our office is an easy drive to and from Houston, in a great small town on the coast.

Annual Salary: $100,000 DOE

Benefits include 100% county health insurance for employee and low-cost health insurance for dependents, excellent retirement, paid CLE, Bar dues and TDCAA dues.

Please signify your interest by submitting a resume to the following:

Cheryl Lieck Henry
Chambers County District Attorney
104 Washington
Anahuac, Texas 77514
(409) 267-2682
(409) 267-3105 fax
ecarcerano@chamberstx.gov