Chambers County Youth Livestock Show and Ranch Rodeo

Exhibit Hall General Rules and Regulations

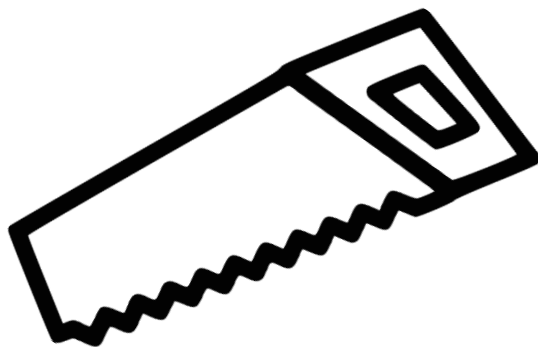

1. All participants must abide by all applicable rules in the Chambers County Livestock Show and Ranch Rodeo Livestock General Rules and Regulations
2. The CCYLSRR is open to all youth who Have not graduated the 12th grade and adheres to one of the following: Attends Anahuac, East Chambers, or Barbers Hill District, is home-schooled in Chambers County, or lives in Chambers County and is in good standing with the Chambers County 4-H Program. There are no exceptions to this rule.
3. All school-age participants must be in compliance with their school's current policies concerning extracurricular activity participation and must be academically eligible in order to participate. Additionally, all exhibitors in grades 3 through 12 must be members of and exhibit their projects under a Chambers County 4-H, Junior FFA or FFA, UNLESS THEIR ENTRY IS SUBMITTED BY A TEACHER THROUGH A PUBIC SCHOOL. Only exhibitors between the ages of 5-years-old and that completion of the second grade may exhibit their projects as independents.
4. All entries must be submitted by the appropriate deadline and method listed on the Exhibit Hall Schedule of Events page. Projects which there is no entry record for will not be permitted to exhibit. If you have any issues submitting your entries, please immediately contact the CCYLSRR Office to receive aid or ask for confirmation of your entry
5. Entries should be placed in the appropriate class and division by the exhibitor at the time of entry – incorrectly classed items may be disqualified or reclassified as the committee sees fit
6. The Exhibit Hall Committee reserves the right to combine classes in the event of an insufficient number of entries in a class and/or to combine classes if deemed necessary. All decisions of the Committee are final
7. All entries must have been completed by the exhibitor who is displaying the project within the twelve months preceding the show. No commercial projects may be entered
8. Exhibitors are not permitted to enter projects which have been entered in previous years (i.e. you cannot enter a photograph that you have already shown)
9. Every precaution to ensure the safety of the projects will be taken, but projects are ultimately the exhibitor's responsibility. By submitting your project to this competition, exhibitor's are releasing the Chambers County Youth Livestock Show and Ranch Rodeo and Chambers County of liability for any damages that their items might incur during the course of the show.
10. All entries must be checked in at the Exhibit Hall at White Memorial Park during the designated check in hours. No late items will be accepted
11. Teachers and/or exhibitors should bring any special supplies required for displaying their projects to the official check in. Only staple guns and regular and double-sided tape will be provided by show officials
12. All entries will receive awards as follows:
 1. Excellent – Blue Ribbon
 2. Good – Red Ribbon
 3. Fair – White Ribbon
